Give Way

Welcome to this Perfect Driver course. Throughout this course, we are going to look at the law, skills, techniques, and ideas to help you become a better, and safer driver.

In this lesson, we'll look at Give Way signs.

Give Way

Let's take a closer look at the
Give Way sign and related road signs and lines.

Give Way

Give Way

The Give Way sign is found around the world - and it means exactly what it says. At a Give Way sign, you must:

- Slow Down.
- Look in all Directions, and Give Way to Appropriate Traffic and Pedestrians.
- Proceed Through the Give Way sign when it is safe to do so.
- You do not necessarily have to come to a complete stop.

Let's have a look at this more closely.

Giving Way to Buses

On many buses, you'll see a sign like the one below.

When you see this sign on a bus, and the bus is indicating that it would like to move out in traffic, or change lanes in front of you, you must give way, and make space for the bus to do just this.

Give Way

Buses have their own lanes on many roads. These may be BUS LANES, or BUS ONLY LANES. You are not allowed to travel in BUS ONLY lanes - they are exclusively for buses.

Generally BUS ONLY lanes are placed in busy areas, designed to allow buses to get from point to point more quickly, and more easily pick up and offload passengers.

These lanes are denoted by street markings, street signs, and, as in this example, a different colour on the road itself.

Give Way

A lane marked as a BUS LANE is allowed to be used by:

- Taxis.
- Hire cars (but not rental cars).
- Motorcycles and bicycles.
- Emergency vehicles.

You are also permitted to travel in a BUS LANE for up to 100 metres to:

- Turn into or out of a street.
- Enter or leave a property adjacent to the bus lane.
- Pass another vehicle that has stopped to turn right or to avoid an obstruction.

Give Way

Where buses do not have their own dedicated bus lanes, you must still give way to buses changing lanes, or re-entering traffic.

Here, a bus has stopped at a bus stop, and now has indicated it wants to change lanes and move into the traffic again.

As the sign on the back of the bus indicates, you are required by law to give way to the bus if it is indicating to change lanes to re-enter traffic, even if this means slowing down or stopping.
